SECOND DAY OF JOINT SESSION WELL ATTENDED

SOLDIERS' AND CITIZENS' OUT-ING AND CAMP FIRE BE-ING ENJOYED.

Despite the threatening weather, the second day's program of the two days outing and camp fire of the Soldiers' and Citizens' Union, held at the McCullough park and at Memorial building, was well attended and was thoroughly enjoyed by the veterans and others attending.

The addresses at Wednesday's session were delivered by well known citizens and were most interesting and entertaining. At the morning session, addresses were delivered by the president of the organization, Daniel Harpster; by the Rev. Franklin Stiles, pioneer Samuel Collins, veteran Calvin Osborne, and Timothy Shroyer. Music for the occasion was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Conner and by the Mart Armstrong Post 5000 corps.

Judge George H. Quail was the principal speaker at the afternoon session. At this session Samuel was again called for and he did as did also Calvin Osborne. Mrs. Anna Willoughby spoke for the patriotic ladies. The most entertaining feature of the program was an excellent reading by Miss Lillian Johnson, physical director of the Business Women's Club. Mr. and Mrs. Conner also sang at this session.

In the evening an interesting camp fire was held at Memorial Hall, where an address was delivered by Attorney Daniel R. Tripphorn. A feature of the evening program was a flag drill given by the Daughters of Veterans.

Thursday's program was similar to that of the first day and was featured by a scholarly address given by Rev. Father Schwertner, pastor of St. John's parish. Another excellent address was delivered by Attorney Jesse Hamilton, for the Sons of Veterans. The day's program concluded Thursday afternoon with an election of officers for the year.

THE OLD-TIME PERUNA. Ka-tar-no, the old-time Peruna, sells like hot cakes on a wintry morning. No wonder. A multitude of people in bygone days learned of the great value of this household remedy. It was then called Peruna. It is now called Ka-tar-no. The name is the only difference. It is the same remedy that we are selling. And we are selling it right fast, too. All are rejoicing over the fact that they are once more able to get the old Peruna, Ka-tar-no. National Wine Co., Distributors, Lima, Ohio.

Gwilym Miles, former Lima man who has earned a reputation as one of the country's most talented musicians and whose magnificent baritone voice has pleased hundreds of audiences through the country, is now winning additional laurels appearing in the title role of "Elijah" Mendelssohn's famous oratorio which has been staged as a musical drama by the Majestic Grand Opera Company. The production will be staged in Detroit next Sunday. "Billy" Miles still has a legion of warm friends in Lima who will be pleased to learn of his new triumph.

The members of the congregation of the Market Street Presbyterian church will hold a mass meeting this evening for the purpose of extending a formal call to the Rev. Thomas Knox of the Seventh Presbyterian church, Cincinnati. Although his present charge is one of the largest and most important in the Queen City, it is believed that the Rev. Knox will accept the call. He is reputed to be one of the most able men of his calling in Cincinnati and will be a valuable addition to the clergy of this city if his services are secured.

Delayed by an accident on the southern division, the "paper train" of the C. H. & D. road reached this city an hour and a half late Thursday morning.

Superintendent Claude C. Fast of the Ohio Electric has resumed his duties after an illness of five weeks duration. During his absence, the duties of his office were performed efficiently by chief dispatcher William Howell.

James Leech, aged 65, a well known citizen residing at 325 north Washington street, is confined to his home, suffering from a serious stroke of paralysis which has deprived him of the power of speech and has affected his entire right side. Owing to his advanced age the venerable patient's condition is regarded as serious. Mr. Leech was formerly secretary of the East Iron & Machine company.

Ernest Thomas, deaf mute, has gone to Columbus on his motor cycle and will spend several days there visiting his deaf and dumb friends.

Fate smiled upon Andrew Point, 343 east Kibby street, yesterday. Point was working in the Cadillac building on west Market street, Wednesday morning. He fell three stories from the platform on which he was working and struck the concrete at the bottom of the shaft. Slight bruises only were sustained. The man was taken to his home in a motor car.

Stockings tucked away in a pair of Oxford's hidden in a closet at the home of Mrs. Mary Cantwell, 619 west High street, caught fire at 8:40 Wednesday night. The blaze spread. Mrs. Cantwell called the central and west end departments and the blaze was smothered. Spontaneous combustion is blamed.

GOT INDIGESTION OR A BAD STOMACH?—PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Time it! In just five minutes there will be no Indigestion, Sourness, Heartburn, Gas or Dyspepsia.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic get this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything leaving nothing to sour and upset you. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear. Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow but not sure. Diapepsin is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back. You feel different as soon as Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine. Put an end to stomach trouble by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

ONE SWALLOW DOES NOT MAKE A SUMMER--NOR A SERIES

Giants Coming Back Strong--Have Lost All Fear of Boston Both Teams Flighty and Playing Poorly

(BY GRANTLAND RICE.)
Boston, Oct. 10.—Before the pop-eyed frenzy of that second battle, a drawn game—the grand old dope skids off the trial and vanishes for good and all. Blown full of holes, twisted out of gear, kicked in the slats there isn't any dope to work or to work with. There isn't anything left but two ball clubs reeling in dizzy circles, floundering and detonating with incessant thuds and yet fighting blindly, madly for the championship of the world.

Foot work has gone, head work has vanished and the two contestants are now face to face attempting to pound each other's brains out with nothing left but the wallop and the punch.

From this wild unkempt mixture one of two things may happen. The first club which slips back to earth and begins playing regular ball may strike an easy trail to the crest, or if neither settles the old hay-maker will decide it about next Wednesday in the last round of the seventh game.

ANYBODY'S SERIES.
Here at the end of the two battles when some line should stand upon the rival play, each club sees in the other an easy victim. Either may be right. The Giants hit Wood harder than they expected to on Tuesday and yesterday they tore the glistening hide off both Collins and Hall. They believe they have Boston's pitching in hand and will continue to hit unless some one shows a bewildering improvement over what has gone before.

After beating Tesreau, Boston in the second game found the Giant defense so wide apart that six unearned tallies were rushed through where with even fair support behind Matty, but one would have been netted. One man, Fletcher, slipped them four or five runs and a miff at the plate graciously presented another. When a ball club is drawing six unearned runs within one fleeting afternoon, the defensive play of the opposing team can be summed up briefly without calling upon any burning oratory to explain the answer.

VIEW POINTS.
From the Giant viewpoint, McGraw now has Marquard, Tesreau and Mathewson left to work in turn and he expects far better pitching the rest of the way although Mathewson would have breezed through yesterday with the yawning gap plugged at short. One miff by Duffy Lewis helped break Collins—but that was one upset. Back of Mathewson, Fletcher cracked at least three times, while Wilson, Merkle and Doyle contributed three additional footles, all were not recognized by the official scorers. The breaks by Doyle and Merkle cost nothing, but Wilson's miff at the plate was a broad side into Giant hope.

From the Red Sox view point Tesreau and Mathewson have been unable to beat them and Stahl believes that O'Brien, Wood and Collins will be there in the next three starts. Neither club has shown anything resembling the pitching or the general stuff which featured the first games last fall.

This goes, except in the batting. In their two games the Giants have combed Boston's premier twirlers for 19 hits, totalling 27 bases against Bender and Coombs last fall in their first two starts they made nine hits for ten bases and but three runs against nine scored to date.

Both clubs are hitting the ball, sousing it upon the beak and the two outfields yesterday were forced to pursue triples and doubles until their tongues hung out. The afternoon's yield netted five triples, six doubles and 11 singles, and of these 22 hits, at least 19 were slashed on smoking lines, leaving a trail of fire behind.

BELONGED TO MATHEWSON.
Taking no credit from Boston's game and driving assaults on the pinch hits, Mathewson's third world's series start should have netted the old master his third first-game victory. Where the Giants pounded Collins and Hall from the field, it was Mathewson's support which cost him the verdict and not his own work in the box. The Red Sox hit him and hit him hard. But through his coolness and courage under fire only a single run was cleanly earned.

Through the entire fight Mathewson's support cracked around him while he swung on grimly and gamely, fighting, planning, hustling and staving off defeat by a combination of brains and heart where a pitcher with far more physical stuff might have crumpled up and surrendered the contest. And yet there were others who rallied behind the veteran and fought with the courage that braves disaster. Leading the Giant attack, Buck Herzog and Red Jack Murray, shoulder to shoulder broke down the Red Sox defense and almost unaided drove Stahl's two pitchers from the field.

The Red Sox yesterday outclassed the Giants in defensive play and saved for weaker pitching by more consistent support.

Wagner especially played brilliantly at short where New York was weakest. With the two shortstops switched the score would have been about 6 to 0. In the tenth round Doyle flashed a play that only a great ball player could have put across. Speaker's far driven triple and Wilson's miff at the plate had tied the score. With only one out, Lewis then doubled and Mathewson was pitching with his back against the wall. Gardner followed with a crack to right and the game looked to be over and the series gone for good. But Doyle whirling for the drive at top speed made one desperate lunge, nailed the ball with one

Slimy Gore Will Deluge San Felice Field When Ada and Heidelberg Meet

Crimson, slimy gore of bloody combat will saturate the real estate of San Felice Park Saturday afternoon, when two legions of warriors fighting from feudal instinct kindled by recent disputes of supremacy, will man their tautly-drawn battle lines and swing them against each other in deadly skirmish. The two teams are collegians—Ohio Northern, of Ada, and Heidelberg, of Tiffin.

Rivalry embittered since the oldest grad doth remember will be kindled anew in this hectic struggle and from indications at this time of the week, there will be nothing lacking to make the combat one of the sternest in years.

The great college game is more

intensely interesting than ever before. The changes made in the rules combine all the fine points of most athletic games. More strength, and speed and nerve is required than ever before. The game of football as now played has lost much of the danger of the old-time flying wedge game, but has yet all the thrill the game ever possessed. Twenty-two picked men, the strongest, speediest, nerviest men in two thousand students, all trained for weeks, these twenty-two men arrayed against each other in teams of eleven, and trying by every means of mind and body to carry the oval pig-skin through the other eleven—this is the material on which the game is built.

Rivalry between the two teams has reached such a degree of intensity that neutral ground was sought for the great battle. San Felice park, Lima, was arrived at, and here the mastodons of the gridiron will do battle, Saturday afternoon. Hundreds of collegians from each school will bank the sides of the field with student humanity, and the old baseball yard is to be converted into a football stadium on which two of the strongest squads of northern Ohio gridironers will array their respective squads.

Ohio Northern is stronger than ever this year. Captain Brown was in Lima yesterday with Albert A. Creculus, dean of the department of expression, and completed arrangements for the game. Heidelberg was defeated 14-0 last year.

MARQUARD TODAY AT BOSTON AGAINST BEDIENT OR O'BRIEN

Boston, Mass., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Rube Marquard is just itching to get into the game. He will pitch this afternoon if calculations pan out correctly. Here's what he says: "We have the Red Sox on the run now and there will be nothing left to it but a clean-up in the next four games for the Giants. I will win my game today. Yes, McGraw has practically told me that I will work today. I am better today than ever in my life. I'm going in and make those alleged sluggers from Boston town look like a gang of young hams swinging from a hook. I had a fine work-out yesterday. Wilbert Robinson said my stuff was better than it ever was.

"I suppose I will draw either Bedient or O'Brien, this afternoon. I don't care which. I can outpitch either one of them. For my own part, I'd rather work against Wood. I beat him every game in the American Association and I've got the old Indian sign on him for proper."

CUBS FIGURE THEY ARE RUNNING AHEAD.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The Cubs figured today that they were ahead in the city series because Big Ed Walsh, of the White Sox, failed to beat them in the opening game. Although the Sox got hits hits and Walsh only allowed one, the game was tied nothing to nothing at the end of nine innings. The tie will be played off today, if the weather permits. Early indications were that it will not.

LIMA HIGH SQUAD WEAKENED BY LOSS OF STAR PLAYERS

Sudowitz and Counsellor Barred From Aggregation by Parental Objection--Team Goes to Defiance Friday--Peck May Play.

(BY PETE.)
It will be an emancipated crowd of athletes who will journey to Defiance Friday afternoon to uphold the colors of Lima High on a foreign stadium. Sapped of its strength by the depletion from its ranks of Quarter Sudowitz and Guard Counsellor, who have been eliminated from the squad by parental objection. Parents of both warriors objected and the players were withdrawn.

In an effort to cope with this predicament, Coach Simpson has elected some sweeping changes during the three days of practice this week. Captain Boen has been shifted to quarterback; right tackle Mulligan goes to guard and Ridenour to right tackle. Peck, star full back for the past two years, may be drafted for backfield duty. Peck has been incapacitated for three weeks from injury, but Coach Simpson holds high hopes of drawing him back into harness. His return would partially offset the absence of Sudowitz and Counsellor.

Lima High goes to Defiance Friday, with the exception of blasting a hole through the demoniac array of the foreigners. The Lima legion, while perhaps not as strong on paper as when they took the field last Friday afternoon and were sent groveling into the dust of ignominy by the corpulent warriors of Plaquemine, is imbued with a hectic determination to beat 'em or bust. Louder Simpson sent them through hours of grilling scrimmage work Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. A stronger line has been developed, interference has improved quite noticeably, and the boys swing their plays with a vim that smacks of confidence and subsequent victory.

Subject, of course, to instant change, the lineup of the locals will look something like this—Hildreth, lb; Ryan, lt; Mulligan, lg; Downing, c; Farrell, p; Ridenour, rg; Galbrough, re; Boen, qb; Davis, lb; Brown, rh, and Peck, fb.

SAYINGS OF THE SAGES

TRIS SPEAKER—The Red Sox would have won if the Giants had not had an option on all the luck.

HUGH JENNINGS—Fortune was against the Giants.

JOE WOOD—The Giants will have to be watched.

JOHN MCGRAW—The Giants have stopped the Red Sox on their own grounds.

JEFFERSON TESREAU—Watching the game from the bench was the hardest work of the season.

BAN JOHNSON—The American League will win the series. It is doubtful if the Giants win a single game.

GARRY HERRMANN—Ban should not be so sure. One game does not win a series.

HILL CARRIGAN—We showed our stamina again in the second game. Mathewson, who pitched for New York is still a grand pitcher.

BIG CHIEF MEYERS—We tackled the Red Sox in their own back yard and fought them to a standstill.

RUBE MARQUARD—The Giants feel more confident than ever that they will win the series, strange to relate, Matty was unfortunate.

MATHEWSON—I think we have an even chance to win.

Giants Coming Back Strong--Have Lost All Fear of Boston Both Teams Flighty and Playing Poorly

Boston, Oct. 10.—Before the pop-eyed frenzy of that second battle, a drawn game—the grand old dope skids off the trial and vanishes for good and all. Blown full of holes, twisted out of gear, kicked in the slats there isn't any dope to work or to work with. There isn't anything left but two ball clubs reeling in dizzy circles, floundering and detonating with incessant thuds and yet fighting blindly, madly for the championship of the world.

Foot work has gone, head work has vanished and the two contestants are now face to face attempting to pound each other's brains out with nothing left but the wallop and the punch.

From this wild unkempt mixture one of two things may happen. The first club which slips back to earth and begins playing regular ball may strike an easy trail to the crest, or if neither settles the old hay-maker will decide it about next Wednesday in the last round of the seventh game.

ANYBODY'S SERIES.
Here at the end of the two battles when some line should stand upon the rival play, each club sees in the other an easy victim. Either may be right. The Giants hit Wood harder than they expected to on Tuesday and yesterday they tore the glistening hide off both Collins and Hall. They believe they have Boston's pitching in hand and will continue to hit unless some one shows a bewildering improvement over what has gone before.

After beating Tesreau, Boston in the second game found the Giant defense so wide apart that six unearned tallies were rushed through where with even fair support behind Matty, but one would have been netted. One man, Fletcher, slipped them four or five runs and a miff at the plate graciously presented another. When a ball club is drawing six unearned runs within one fleeting afternoon, the defensive play of the opposing team can be summed up briefly without calling upon any burning oratory to explain the answer.

VIEW POINTS.
From the Giant viewpoint, McGraw now has Marquard, Tesreau and Mathewson left to work in turn and he expects far better pitching the rest of the way although Mathewson would have breezed through yesterday with the yawning gap plugged at short. One miff by Duffey Lewis helped break Collins—but that was one upset. Back of Mathewson, Fletcher cracked at least three times, while Wilson, Merkle and Doyle contributed three additional footles, all were not recognized by the official scorers. The breaks by Doyle and Merkle cost nothing, but Wilson's miff at the plate was a broad side into Giant hope.

From the Red Sox view point Tesreau and Mathewson have been unable to beat them and Stahl believes that O'Brien, Wood and Collins will be there in the next three starts. Neither club has shown anything resembling the pitching or the general stuff which featured the first games last fall.

This goes, except in the batting. In their two games the Giants have combed Boston's premier twirlers for 19 hits, totalling 27 bases against Bender and Coombs last fall in their first two starts they made

CHRISTY MATHEWSON

Slimy Gore Will Deluge San Felice Field When Ada and Heidelberg Meet

Crimson, slimy gore of bloody combat will saturate the real estate of San Felice Park Saturday afternoon, when two legions of warriors fighting from feudal instinct kindled by recent disputes of supremacy, will man their tautly-drawn battle lines and swing them against each other in deadly skirmish. The two teams are collegians—Ohio Northern, of Ada, and Heidelberg, of Tiffin.

Rivalry embittered since the oldest grad doth remember will be kindled anew in this hectic struggle and from indications at this time of the week, there will be nothing lacking to make the combat one of the sternest in years.

The great college game is more

intensely interesting than ever before. The changes made in the rules combine all the fine points of most athletic games. More strength, and speed and nerve is required than ever before. The game of football as now played has lost much of the danger of the old-time flying wedge game, but has yet all the thrill the game ever possessed. Twenty-two picked men, the strongest, speediest, nerviest men in two thousand students, all trained for weeks, these twenty-two men arrayed against each other in teams of eleven, and trying by every means of mind and body to carry the oval pig-skin through the other eleven—this is the material on which the game is built.

Rivalry between the two teams has reached such a degree of intensity that neutral ground was sought for the great battle. San Felice park, Lima, was arrived at, and here the mastodons of the gridiron will do battle, Saturday afternoon. Hundreds of collegians from each school will bank the sides of the field with student humanity, and the old baseball yard is to be converted into a football stadium on which two of the strongest squads of northern Ohio gridironers will array their respective squads.

Ohio Northern is stronger than ever this year. Captain Brown was in Lima yesterday with Albert A. Creculus, dean of the department of expression, and completed arrangements for the game. Heidelberg was defeated 14-0 last year.

POPULAR LIMA MAN TAKES A BROOKLYN GIRL FOR HIS BRIDE.

Special to The News.
Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 10.—A pretty wedding of interest to Lima as well as here was that in this city Tuesday evening when Walter Baldwin Carnes, the 28 year old son of Ira P., and Louisa Wulchet Carnes, of Lima, and Miss Lydia Katherine Yates, the 23 year old daughter of Preston and Elizabeth S. The bride, who is a native of Carafaharie, N. Y., was given away by her father. She was attired in an elaborate gown of white chiffon which was trimmed with rose point lace. MEMBER OF FRENCH ROYAL FAMILY BELIEVES HER SON MET WITH FOUL PLAY HERE

A scion of what formerly was the French royalty is missing from his home in St. Louis, Mo., and believed by relatives to be in Lima where either foul play has overtaken him or he is in a desperate condition from illness.

Thursday morning came a pathetic appeal from the wife of the Marquis De Lafayette Webb, deceased, asking Mayor Shook to locate her son, Charles Webb, who took employment in this city on September 1st. Word has not been heard from him since. The family was driven from France more than a half-century ago and forced to seek shelter in America. The Marquis died in 1905. The family is now in dire circumstances. The younger Webb left home several months ago. He wrote to his sister, Luella Webb, that he had obtained employment in this city.

Last word was heard from him on September 1st. The sister believes that he has met with foul play, and asks local police to institute a search for him.

His signature to an important legal paper is necessary for the family to come into possession of an insurance policy of $355.00. The policy was taken out in 1866 and was lost for a number of years. It turned up recently and the family being in dire need of financial assistance are making an effort to obtain the claim.

The venerable widow, who is blind and crippled, is nearly distracted from grief and is anxious to hear from her son. An inquiry was addressed to Postmaster Gale on September 23rd with no results.

The widow, Mrs. Margaret B. Webb, lives at 2640 Union Boulevard, St. Louis, Mo.

At dinner Wednesday evening, fourteen captains present compared notes and results, finding the sum of $4,200 contributed since the opening of the campaign Monday. Furthermore, they are anticipating even better results for today, though the weather is just as inclement as yesterday, hoping to reach above $5,000, which the large clock on the square will indicate.

NORTHERN STUDENTS ANXIOUS- LY AWAITING BIG GAME.

Seldom, if ever, has any event created excitement in Ohio Northern University that the Heidelberg-Northern game of next Saturday has aroused. When a popular vote as to whether the game should be played in Lima was taken in Chapel the entire student body unanimously assented.

San Felipe Park has been secured and every detail of the game is being arranged by the athletic association. It is expected that the crowd of at least 700 students will go over in a special train, accompanied by the University Band and a loyal force of serpentine dancers and rah rah producers.

The practice of yesterday was unusually spirited. Coach Bradshaw is working for speed and is certainly getting his gridiron machine loosened up for fast work. It is expected that both Grisbaum, who was injured in the Buckle game, and Capt. Brown, who has been out since the Pittsburg game, will be in the game next Saturday. Gardner, who the Pittsburg papers said was the best end that ever appeared on Forbes Field has left O. N. U. to go to the University of Mississippi. His absence from the lineup will be felt keenly by the Northern lineup.

Peters, the star full-back of the last two years, is playing higher grade ball this year than ever before. His work in delivering the forward pass and in punting was pronounced by Pittsburg writers to be the best on their field this year. It is the intention of Coach Bradshaw to carry the entire second string of men to Lima. Just what the preliminary workout will be before the game is not definitely known at this time. In all probability a short scrimmage between first and second teams will warm up the Varsity for the stiff proposition that is to follow.

NEW CHAPTER IN ELOPEMENT

WOMAN WHO RAN AWAY WITH FARMER WAS OF AFRICAN DESCENT.

To Chicago has gone the story of the elopement of Miss William E. Maurer, 718 west Elm street, this city, with Ferd Edmonson, a Waynesfield farmer.

The story of the sensational elopement was published in the Daily News several weeks ago. New developments, however, have arrived. Miss Maurer, the eloping wife of the local contractor, is a daughter of John Bram, the colored attorney, of this city, who shot a white woman at three years ago and later committed suicide in the Ohio State penitentiary.

On September 12, after consulting with the Waynesfield farmer clandestinely for several weeks, the woman left her home and disappeared. The day previous Edmonson came to Lima and disposed of a team of draft horses at the Hooker livery barn on east Spring street. He also sold the title of a farm to his wife. Nothing has been heard of them since.

Driven to desperation by the futile efforts to locate his romantic wife, Maurer addressed a pathetic inquiry to Postmaster Campbell, of Chicago, requesting that every possible effort be made to locate his wife and return her to her home. A boy of four and a girl of six, children of the erring wife, are in a critical condition at the home on west Elm street pining pitifully for "Mama."

Nothing has turned up that would lead to their location.

MEMBER OF FRENCH ROYAL FAMILY BELIEVES HER SON MET WITH FOUL PLAY HERE

A son of what formerly was the French royalty is missing from his home in St. Louis, Mo., and believed by relatives to be in Lima where either foul play has overtaken him or he is in a desperate condition from illness.

Thursday morning came a pathetic appeal from the wife of the Marquis De Lafayette Webb, deceased, asking Mayor Shook to locate her son, Charles Webb, who took employment in this city on September 1st. Word has not been heard from him since. The family was driven from France more than a half-century ago and forced to seek shelter in America. The Marquis died in 1905. The family is now in dire circumstances. The younger Webb left home several months ago. He wrote to his sister, Luella Webb, that he had obtained employment in this city.

Last word was heard from him on September 1st. The sister believes that he has met with foul play, and asks local police to institute a search for him.

His signature to an important legal paper is necessary for the family to come into possession of an insurance policy of $355.00. The policy was taken out in 1866 and was lost for a number of years. It turned up recently and the family being in dire need of financial assistance are making an effort to obtain the claim.

The venerable widow, who is blind and crippled, is nearly distracted from grief and is anxious to hear from her son. An inquiry was addressed to Postmaster Gale on September 23rd with no results.

The widow, Mrs. Margaret B. Webb, lives at 2640 Union Boulevard, St. Louis, Mo.

CAMPAIGN NOW AT A FEVER HEAT

The campaigners of the Business Woman's Club reported a sum of $1,150 subscribed Wednesday, despite the rain and unfavorable weather, which, however could not dampen the ardor of the enthusiastic workers. At dinner Wednesday evening, fourteen captains present compared notes and results, finding the sum of $4,200 contributed since the opening of the campaign Monday. Furthermore, they are anticipating even better results for today, though the weather is just as inclement as yesterday, hoping to reach above $5,000, which the large clock on the square will indicate.

FAUROT—"THE BOHEMIAN GIRL."

Nothing succeeds like success, and this is once more demonstrated in the case of the Aborn Opera Company's revival of that most popular of operas, "The Bohemian Girl" (in English) which is now in its second successful year, and which comes to the Faurot tonight. The secret of the phenomenal success of Balfe's masterpiece is not hard to find, when one recalls such beautiful ballads as "The Heart Bowed Down," "Bliss Forever Past," "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls" and "Then You'll Remember Me," and various others numbering in the total more than any other standard opera contains. Combined with these is a book that evolves as pretty a romance as forms a part of any opera now being presented. It is said the Messrs. Aborn have given to "The Bohemian Girl" a scenic equipment comprising six magnificent scenes, among which is Count Arnheim's Palace in the mountains of Austria-Hungary, a picturesque Gypsy camp, a street fair and the Marble Halls. Previous to the Aborn's revival of this opera no American managers had ever undertaken the task of treating it spectacularly, to which it lends itself so perfectly. For instance, in the first act they employ a score of horses in thrilling melodramatic style, and in the second, in the Gypsy Camp, are seen a band of real Gypsies with their horses, dogs, chickens, geese and swine, while in the street fair scene the Hassen Ben Ali troupe of whirlwind acrobats are among the unusual features shown. While these innovations were never attempted in the United States previous to their adoption by the Messrs. Aborn on the ground that they were inconsistent, they have all found to not only fit, but greatly enhance the interest of the opera. In the interpretation of the opera is employed an unusually large company, which includes besides an exceptionally strong double cast of grand opera soloists as principals, an immense chorus, corps de ballet, and a number of special performers. The most important in the cast is Helena Morrill as "Arlene," Nella Brown as the "Gypsy Queen," Roy Pilcher as "Thaddeus," Wilmet C. Goodwin as "County Arnheim," Detmar H. Poppin as "Devilshoof," Stephen Stott as "Florestin." The special orchestra is under the direction of George Lyding.

BASEBALL AND PATRIOTISM.

The thousands of baseball enthusiasts who camped all night at the Polo Grounds in New York to be on hand when the box-office opened manifested a remarkable loyalty to the national game. Is there any other American institution which inspires a comparable devotion at the expense of personal discomfort? Could any orator or statesman command it, or the greatest tenor or most popular actress? The spectacle might have moved Carlyle to write a new chapter on hero-worship, and it should afford material for those who attempt to analyze the psychology of the crowd.

American citizens do not sit up all night to vote on constitutional amendments, and the fact that they

"Look at the Traction Map."

THE HUMAN SPECTACLE.

There is an elderly woman in Lima—doubtless only one of many —whose conversation is a constant source of delight to her friends. She didn't go to college, perhaps not even to high school, but her conversation is much more entertaining than that of many highly educated persons. She doesn't talk about art or literature. But she has observed life closely for three-score years, and it has afforded her infinite satisfaction. She is full of quaint and humorous observations on the passing show.

Of course the limitations of her information are not cited as an advantage. It would be a delight to hear her discourse on Shakespeare or Materlinck if she were familiar with their writings. But it is remarkable how well her interest in people has served her.

Frequently you find a highly-cultured person who is exceedingly threesome. His knowledge somehow seems to be something apart from life. He may have an opinion on French literature and the mechanical construction of the universe, or something equally as deep. But it all seems foreign to human experience. So the vital touch is lacking.

But the wisdom of this elderly woman is greater by far than all—because it is experience gained by contact with the world and the people within the world. From her learning springs lessons more valuable than a study of the stars can teach. Here are life lessons that have had their place in the lives of people that have passed away years ago, of people that are living today, lessons that will be still new to generations yet to come. And is it not, after all, this kind of an education that is essential to the best sort of companionship? Is it not just such people with just such an education—derived alone from experience—that makes us feel sometimes we have lost our time listening to the scholarly gentleman who

"dopes" us with art and literature and leaves us wondering if he really knows what he is talking about or if he really thinks we care.

The thousands of baseball enthusiasts who camped all night at the Polo Grounds in New York to be on hand when the box-office opened manifested a remarkable loyalty to the national game. Is there any other American institution which inspires a comparable devotion at the expense of personal discomfort? Could any orator or statesman command it, or the greatest tenor or most popular actress?

The spectacle might have moved Car-should undergo such an ordeal for the mere privilege of buying tickets for a ball game may prompt remarks on the contradictions of American character.

But the incident may more properly be regarded as betokening a loyalty akin to patriotism, which it is encouraging to observe. This is the spirit that moves mountains and works miracles when rightly directed.

There is no immediate occasion to despair for our institutions while this important one flourishes and evokes a fidelity and devotion such as that manifested at the Polo

Grounds by the waiting throng.

It remained for the Toledo Times to call attention to the fact that there are some spineless creatures in the world, but the man who says

"the woman tempted me" when he is caught is three degrees lower than a worm.

The Chicago Tribune says more attention should be given in public schools to teaching girls to cook.

That's it—the old "feed the brute" proposition is still uppermost in some editor's minds.

Doc. Cook's latest statement is to the effect that the Garden of Eden is at the North Pole. We had been taught that people didn't have to wear clothes in the Garden of Eden.

"Go back to mush and milk," says Dr. Wiley. No need in that admonition. We're getting back there by leaps and bounds these days.

After learning through the Senate probe committee what it costs to be elected president we join heartily with a number of our friends in declaring we have no aspirations along that line.

Philadelphia has decided to get her police from the country towns.

Slowly but surely the larger cities follow Lima's example.

Maybe after all that fellow who brought forth the stingless bee is only trying to get in shape to corner the honey market.

STANDARD OIL OIL FLOWED VERY FREELY

POLITICIANS DURING 1900
CAMPAIGN.

(By United Press)
Washington, Oct. 10.—Intimate relations between Standard Oil and Ohio and Pennsylvania members of congress were detailing to the Clapp committee by D. Archbold, head of the "oil hold nonchalantly waded through dozens of his letters published in a magazine. He freely admitted relations with former senator Foraker and Mark Hanna, of Ohio, former senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, former representative Sibley of Pennsylvania.

The Standard Oil chief said added paying $44,500 to Foraker in 1900. He said it was for attorneys fees to Foraker, declaring the senator was the oil company's agent in Ohio. He also admitted paying $10,000 to Senator Quay in 1900 and $1,000 to Grosvenor in 1901. Both were campaign contributors, he insisted.

Other letter Archbold said was sent to Representative McVey suggesting a conference with him on a conference with representative senator who would be a tower of safety in time of trouble. Archbold gave his testimony without the least hesitancy. Some of the fiercest letters published he didn't recollect. For an hour and Archbold was quizzed, entirely regarding the "stolen letters."
He called them. His testimony was not completed at the morning session and he continued on the second afternoon. Examination by Chairman Hilles of the Republican National committee was also conducted until this afternoon.

WAR VETERANS

Late Spanish "Unpleasantness" Will Gather Here.

Lima will entertain the Spanish-American war veterans at their annual reunion. This decision was reached yesterday in the evening session of their 1912 reunion of Findlay, Ohio, at which several hundred ex-soldiers of the cond regiment were present. Lima members were chosen for two following officers were elected as follows:
President—Col. W. S. Bryant, of Loomdale.
Vice-President—George Quail, of Lima.
Secretary-Treasurer—John Hoeger, Wapakoneta.
Historian—John Lutes, of Lima.
A number of Lima veterans attended the reunion, which was most notable in years.

PRESIDENT NAMED

At a meeting of the Allen County Roosevelt club, held in this city Wednesday evening, Dr. L. R.
Pence of Spencerville, brother of Dr. J. C. Pence, of this city, was elected to the presidency of the club, succeeding Don C. Henderson.
The Spencerville Bull Mooser was not present at the meeting.

Dr. Hartman Writes:

Columbus, Ohio, July 15.—In reply to many letters about my recent article on catarrh and constipation I wish to make the following statement:

Constipation is becoming more prevalent every day. Nearly one-half of the human family are troubled with it more or less. This fact presents a serious complication in the treatment of chronic disease.

Thirty years ago when I was prescribing Peruna every day only a small fraction of the people needed a laxative. But I have found by experience that more and more a laxative must be used.

Peruna originally contained no laxative element. I used to prescribe the laxative Manalin to be used in case a laxative was needed.
This necessitated the patient buying two bottles of medicine instead of one.

As constipation became more general I finally concluded to add a laxative element to Peruna. The new Peruna is made with a laxative ingredient. The old Peruna (Ka-tar-no) is without a laxative.
On that account some prefer the old Peruna, some prefer the new Peruna.

The new Peruna is for people who have some catarrhal ailment and yet need a laxative. Sold at all drug stores.

The old Peruna (Ka-tar-no) is for those people who have some catarrhal ailment but need no laxative.
Those wishing to procure the old Peruna should address The Ka-tar-no Co., Columbus, Ohio, for further particulars.

ARCHDUCHESS MARIA

Berlin—News comes from Vienna that the romantic Archduchess Maria de los Dolores has fixed her young affections on a man whose blood is muddy compared to the aristocratic blue that flows in her veins. More and more, the man whom the Archduchess loves, Lieutenant Raonoff, a dashing young cavalry officer, is married. As a result the Archduchess finds herself virtually a prisoner in a sanitarium for the weak-minded. Her proud mother, who was Blanche of Castile, a Bourbon Princess, believes,
or pretends to believe, that a daughter of hers who conceives a passion for a person so far beneath her rank must be affected mentally.

The club will meet next in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Patton on east Pearl street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wemmer, daughters, Misses Pauline and Hel-den, and son William, Jr., returned to their home on west Market street, Tuesday, after having spent a most delightful summer in Europe. They were met in New York by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wemmer.
Mr. Wemmer left for the Fath-erland last April, and was joined in July by his family. The time was spent visiting among relatives in Germany, and later at the various countries of the Old World of such deep interest to tourists.

The University Club, consisting
of members of the Alumni of O. W.
and formerly known as the Auld Lang Syne club, held its first meeting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. M. B. Fuller on south West street, Wednesday evening. Thirty men and women enjoyed an animated discussion on "The Political Situation." The opening speech was made by Mr. Otto Lippincott in an eloquent and fervent manner.
Shorter discussions followed in
which Dr. Hoover, Dr. Pett, Dr.

Fuller, Dr. Figley Dr. Jewett, Eugene Lippincott, Mr. Francis, Mr.
Hildreth, Rev. Dunham, Mrs. D.
R. Cook and Mrs. Hildreth participated. No antagonism was aroused but each seemed delighted to express their individual convictions in an interesting and unbiased manner. Dr. George Hall, president of the club, presided at the meeting. At the conclusion of the discussions a straw vote was taken which showed the following results: Wilson, 16. Roosevelt 7, Taft, 6, and undecided, 1.
Responses to roll call were made by briefly relating current news of the day, after which a pleasant social time and dainty refreshments were enjoyed before the final adjournment of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Stepleton, of Greenlawn avenue, have as their guest Mrs. George Wightman, of Portland, Ore. Mr. Wightman is the general manager of the Santian Fruit Colony, which consists of several thousand apple trees scientifically developed. In discussing the fruit raising of that productive western section, Mr. Wightman stated that it was a punishable crime to sell a diseased apple from any of their orchards.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lathen, of 1232 west North street, enjoyed a visit from their son, Pearl Lathen
and wife and children, of Indiana, Wednesday.

Mrs. M. G. Bradford, of St. Albans, Vermont, is a guest of her cousin, Mrs. William Melville, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Peltier of 901 east Elm street, will entertain Monday evening, October fourteenth in celebration of their twentieth wedding anniversary.

Twenty members of the Philomathean club participated in the first meeting of the year at the home of their president, Miss Jessie Boone Monday evening.

Upon opening the meeting, Miss Mackenzie, ex-president, presided until the new officers were installed, after which Miss Boone filled the position of honor. The other officers are: Miss Blanche Andrews, vice president; Miss Caroline Retelstorf, secretary, and Miss Evelyn Davison, treasurer. One new member, Mrs. P. I. Tussing was received into the membership of the club.

At the close of the business session, an excellent original paper entitled, "The New West" was given by Miss Lillian McKinney, after which each member related a current event in response to roll call. Dainty refreshments served by the hostess and a pleasant social session concluded this successful initial meeting.

She Burned the House
A woman in Montana sat down
the other day and thought about house cleaning—about the carpets
and rugs to clean, the woodwork
to wash, the curtains to wash, the portiers to wash, the stairway and rallings and the floors and every-steps and the windows and everything else to be washed and cleaned
—and she got so worried over the prospect that she set fire to her house. Do you blame her? If she had only known as you do that Easy Task soap will do half the work of washing and cleaning, she

THREE-YEAR-OLD IS A BORN TRAVELER

Imbued with a spirit of wanderlust almost unprecedented in a boy of his age, "Billy," the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Khaer, 526 south Scott street, left his home Thursday morning for the third successive time of the week.
"Billy" trudged away from his home on Monday and Tuesday afternoons.
Police found him on both occasions and returned him to his parents after hours of anxiety on their part.

Thursday morning, "Billy" started for his father's blacksmith shop at 121 east Kibby street. He lost his bearings and was trudging toward the public square. Arthur Ward, a Western Union messenger, found him near Main and Elm streets. He took him to the central station on his bicycle. Police recognized "Billy." Sergeant Heffern had entertained him twice this week so parents were notified and the babe reclaimed.

SQUIRE HEARS PATHETIC CASE

Inhumanity of the cruelest type is charged in an affidavit against Henry Bowyer, 28, a machinist of south Lima, by his wife, Mrs. Hazel Bow-yer, in Justice Everett's court yesterday morning. According to the charges, Bowyer deserted his wife, then in ill health on September 8th. Left in destitute circumstances at her home, 205 1-2 east North street, the woman suffered for several weeks. On September 23rd, a baby was born. Bowyer has failed to contribute to their support since the first of September, according to the affidavit.

Through her attorney, Emmett
Jackson, Mrs. Bowyer preferred charges alleging abandonment, in Justice Everett's court, today. Bow-yer was arrested in a south Lima machine shop. Furnishing bond in the sum of $200.00 he was released to appear Friday morning at 9 o'clock. He has retained T. R.
Hamilton as his attorney.

Protest is Filed Against Nomination Of "Red" Candidate

Chief Deputy John H. Klate, of
the Allen county board of deputy state supervisors of elections, has received from John E. Priddy, of Findlay, a formal protest against the name of Purrl E. Riegel, of Cridersville, socialist candidate for judge of the circuit court of the third judicial district, being placed on the official non-partisan judicial ballot soon to be printed for the November election.

The protest has been filed with the boards of elections in each of the sixteen counties comprising
the third judicial district and it will be necessary to call a meeting

of the chief deputies and clerks of the district on some date prior to the printing of the ballots in order to give the protestant and the protested candidate a hearing on the cause designated.

Mr. Priddy, who files the protest against the socialist candidate's nomination, cites as his grounds
for protest the following:

"That the so-called socialist convention which claims to have nominated him was not composed of delegates chosen at a primary election as provided by law, nor at county convention composed of
delegates chosen at primaries as provided by law, and furthermore

no lawful socialist party convention was held on September 16, at Lima, Ohio, or elsewhere which nominated the said Purrl E. Riegel as a candidate for judge of the circuit court of the third judicial district."

Thursday was the last day for the filing of protests against nominations or nominating petitions and
the protest of the Findlay man against the petition of the socialist candidate was the only one that had been filed with the local board
up to the hour of this writing.

Attorney Otto Lippincott, of Bath township, this county, is the progressive party's candidate for the circuit judgeship. His nomination was made by petition instead of by convention of authorized delegates.

POLITICIANS DURING 1900
CAMPAIGN.

(By United Press)
Cincinnati, Oct. 10.—Intimate relations between Standard Oil and Ohio politicians during 1900 were detailed by the Clapp committee by D. Archbold, head of the "oil trust."
Archbold nonchalantly waded through dozens of his letters published in a magazine. He freely admitted relations with former senator Foraker and Mark Hanna, of Ohio, former senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, former representative Sibley of Pennsylvania.
The Standard Oil chief said he paid $44,500 for Foraker in 1900. He said it was for attorney fees for Foraker, declaring the senator was the oil company's
agent in Ohio. He also admitted paying $10,000 to Senator Quay in 1900 and $1,000 to Grosvener in 1901. Both were campaign contributors, he insisted.
Another letter Archbold said was sent to Representative McVey suggesting a conference with representative senator who would
be a tower of safety in time of war.
Archbold gave his testimony without the least hesitancy. Some of the letters published here he didn't recollect. For an hour and a half Archbold was quizzed, entirely regarding the "stolen letters."
He called them. His testimony
was not completed at the morning
session and he continued on the second afternoon. Examination
by Chairman Hilles of the Republican National committee was also conducted until this afternoon.

SHE'S LOCKED UP

Berlin—News comes from Vienna that the romantic Archduchess Maria de los Dolores has fixed her
young affections on a man whose
blood is muddy compared to the
aristocratic blue that flows in her veins. More and more, the man whom the Archduchess loves, Lieutenant Roonoff, a dashing young cavalry officer, is married. As a result the Archduchess finds herself
virtually a prisoner in a sanitarium
for the weak-minded. Her proud mother, who was Blanche of Cas-
tile, a Bourbon Princess, believes,
or pretends to believe, that a daughter of hers who conceives a passion
for a person so far beneath her
rank must be affected mentally.

Market street, Tuesday afternoon. All except two ladies of the club were present and a very pleasant social afternoon was spent. All were busy with their sewing except for a short time devoted to a contest which provoked much meritement. As a result of the contest, Mrs. Seibold and Mrs. Stoner were awarded the first and second prizes respectively.

At four o'clock the hostess served a delicious luncheon of:
Potato Rusks
Escalloped Potatoes
Veal Salad
Olives
Ice Cream

The club will meet next in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Patton
on east Pearl street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wemmer,
daughters, Misses Pauline and Hel-
den, and son William, Jr., returned to their home on west Market
street, Tuesday, after having spent
a most delightful summer in Europe. They were met in New York
by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wemmer.
Mr. Wemmer left for the Fath-erland last April, and was joined
in July by his family. The time was spent visiting among relatives
in Germany, and later at the various countries of the Old World of
such deep interest to tourists.

The University Club, consisting
of members of the Alumni of O. W.
and formerly known as the Auld Lang Syne club, held its first meeting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. M. B. Fuller on south West street, Wednesday evening. Thirty
men and women enjoyed an animated discussion on "The Political Situation." The opening speech was made by Mr. Otto Lippincott in an eloquent and fervent manner.
Shorter discussions followed in
which Dr. Hoover, Dr. Pett, Dr.

Fuller, Dr. Figley Dr. Jewett, Eugene Lippincott, Mr. Francis, Mr.
Hildreth, Rev. Dunham, Mrs. D.
R. Cook and Mrs. Hildreth participated. No antagonism was aroused
but each seemed delighted to express their individual convictions
in an interesting and unbiased
manner. Dr. George Hall, president of the club, presided at the meeting. At the conclusion of the discussions a straw vote was taken
which showed the following results: Wilson, 16. Roosevelt 7.
Taft, 6, and undecided, 1.
Responses to roll call were made by briefly relating current news of
the day, after which a pleasant social time and dainty refreshments
were enjoyed before the final adjournment of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Stepleton, of Greenlawn avenue, have as their guest Mrs. George Wightman, of Portland, Ore. Mr. Wightman is
the general manager of the Santian Fruit Colony, which consists of several thousand apple trees scientifically developed. In discussing the fruit raising of that productive
western section, Mr. Wightman
stated that it was a punishable
crime to sell a diseased apple from
any of their orchards.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lathen, of 1232 west North street, enjoyed a visit from their son, Pearl Lathen
and wife and children, of Indiana, Wednesday.

Mrs. M. G. Bradford, of St. Albans, Vermont, is a guest of her cousin, Mrs. William Melville, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Peltier of 901 east Elm street, will entertain Monday evening, October fourteenth
in celebration of their twentieth
wedding anniversary.

Twenty members of the Philoma-
thean club participated in the first meeting of the year at the home of
their president, Miss Jessie Boone Monday evening.

Upon opening the meeting, Miss Mackenzie, ex-president, presided
until the new officers were installed, after which Miss Boone filled
the position of honor. The other officers are: Miss Blanche Andrews,
vice president; Miss Caroline Ret-
elstorf, secretary, and Miss Evelyn Davison, treasurer. One new member, Mrs. P. I. Tussing was received into the membership of the
club.

At the close of the business session, an excellent original paper
entitled, "The New West" was given by Miss Lillian McKinney, after which each member related a
current event in response to roll call. Dainty refreshments served by the hostess and a pleasant social session concluded this successful initial meeting.

She Burned the House
A woman in Montana sat down
the other day and thought about
house cleaning—about the carpets
and rugs to clean, the woodwork
to wash, the curtains to wash, the
portiers to wash, the stairway and
rallings and the floors and every-
steps and the windows and everything else to be washed and cleaned
—and she got so worried over the
prospect that she set fire to her house. Do you blame her? If she had only known as you do that Easy Task soap will do half the
work of washing and cleaning, she would have felt more cheerful. It's a nickel a cake and one woman said she would pay a dollar a cake for it if she could get it no other way.

lust almost unprecedented in a year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank

part.

his bearings and was trudging to-

station on his bicycle. Police recognized "Billy." Sergeant Heffern
had entertained him twice this
week so parents were notified and

Inhumanity of the cruelest type is
charged in an affidavit against Henry Bowyer, 28, a machinist of south Lima, by his wife, Mrs. Hazel Bow-yer, in Justice Everett's court yesterday morning. According to the charge, Bowyer deserted his wife, then in ill health on September 8th. Left in destitute circumstances at her home, 205 1-2 east North street, the woman suffered
for several weeks. On September 23rd, a baby was born. Bowyer has failed to contribute to their
support since the first of September, according to the affidavit.

Through her attorney, Emmett
Jackson, Mrs. Bowyer preferred
charges alleging abandonment, in Justice Everett's court, today. Bow-yer was arrested in a south Lima

the sum of $200.00 he was releas-

o'clock. He has retained T. R.
Hamilton as his attorney.

Protest is Filed Against Nomination Of "Red" Candidate

Chief Deputy John H. Klate, of
the Allen county board of deputy
state supervisors of elections, has received from John E. Priddy, of Findlay, a formal protest against
the name of Purrl E. Riegel, of Cridersville, socialist candidate for
judge of the circuit court of the
third judicial district, being placed
on the official non-partisan judicial ballot soon to be printed for the November election.

The protest has been filed with
the boards of elections in each of
the sixteen counties comprising
the third judicial district and it will be necessary to call a meeting

the district on some date prior to
the printing of the ballots in order to give the protestant and the
protested candidate a hearing on
the cause designated.

Mr. Priddy, who files the protest against the socialist candidate's
nomination, cites as his grounds
for protest the following:

"That the so-called socialist
convention which claims to have
nominated him was not composed
of delegates chosen at a primary
election as provided by law, nor at
county convention composed of
delegates chosen at primaries as
provided by law, and furthermore

no lawful socialist party convention was held on September 16, at Lima, Ohio, or elsewhere which
nominated the said Purrl E. Riegel
as a candidate for judge of the
district."

Thursday was the last day for
the filing of protests against nominations or nominating petitions and
the protest of the Findlay man
against the petition of the socialist
candidate was the only one that
had been filed with the local board
up to the hour of this writing.

Attorney Otis Lippincott, of Bath township, this county, is the progressive party's candidate for the circuit judgeship. His nomination
was made by petition instead of by
convention of authorized delegates.

MURDERED GIRL'S BODY IDENTIFIED BY PHALEN AS THAT OF LIMA GIRL

Telegrams were received in this city Thursday afternoon, from juvenile court officer Thomas Phalen, undertaker F. C. Whitley and from newspaper correspondents at Evansville, Ind., announcing that the body of the young girl who was murdered in that city two weeks ago, had been identified as that of Jessie DeLong, the young girl who has been missing from her home on west Wayne street, this city, since August 18.

The girl's stepfather, Charles DeLong, arrived in this city Wednesday night and when seen stated that he did not believe the body which he saw at Evansville was the body of his missing stepdaughter. Mrs. DeLong, the mother, when shown a photograph of the dead girl which was received by the police of this city, declared that she was of the opinion that the murdered victim was her daughter. The photograph was also seen by juvenile court officer Phalen Wednesday morning and he declared himself of the opinion that the victim was Jessie DeLong, who had been a ward of the juvenile court. On the strength of this belief he went to Evansville, accompanied by Undertaker Whitley and after viewing the remains he was positive of the identity of the murderer's victim and took charge of the body.

Officer Phalen and Undertaker Whitley left Evansville with the body at 1:35 o'clock Thursday afternoon and wired that they would arrive in this city at 2 o'clock Friday morning.

By W. W. Naughton

San Francisco, Oct. 9.—It is a pity for Eddie McGoorty's sake that his bouts with Australian Dave Smith and English Jack Harrison, were not in accordance with the middleweight conditions in the matter of poundage. If they had been the question of championship in the 168-pound class which has been in a badly vexed condition since Stanley Ketchel died, would be might close to a settlement.

McGoorty would have been in a position today to say "my right there is none to dispute," for with the scalps of the Australian and English champions dangling at his girdle it would be easy enough for him to bring confusion to any one inclined to argue that he was claiming too much.

Of course France could claim that until she was vanquished McGoorty's conquest of the middleweight universe, but the protest from the land of the Gaul would sound like a very still, small voice.

For that matter, judging from the way he handled Smith and Harrison, McGoorty could hop over to Paris and settle the pretensions of George Carpenter in a jiffy. Then with all foreign territory subdued, Eddie could entertain challenges from his own countrymen or else invest in some fanciful sparring costumes and take a long fling at the theatrical game.

But whether it gains him a world's championship or not McGoorty's work with Smith and Harrison makes him as prominent a figure as there is in the fist realm today. To begin with the men he defeated were champions of their respective countries, even though the weight requirements were not conformed with when McGoorty came into their lives.

And to knock out a brace of world's champions in less than four minutes fighting time, all told, and all in the space of three weeks, is a feat that has not been duplicated since men began to box with "muffled hands."

It is to be regretted that, sandwiched in between McGoorty's world's startling performances, was that spiritless go with Cyclone Thompson at Cincinnati. There was something about the affair which did not ring true.

Some of the reports which reached the coast had it that both men were lissed for their slouchy work, while others told how Cyclone chased the Oshkosh boy from pillar to post and went near to knocking him out several times.

tackling the Cyclone once more and administering a drubbing to him. Apart from what happened at Cincinnati there is sufficient provocation for a McGoorty-Thompson battle. Thompson, through his manager, one Larney Lychtenstein, has laid claim to the middle weight championship, on the strength of a victory over Billy Papke at the Annapolis.

This looks like rubbing it in. First of all Thompson places McGoorty in a dubious light by doing the bulk of the little fighting that was done at Cincinnati, and then totally ignoring the fact that McGoorty has just swept the foreign middleweight situation as clean as a whistle. Thompson calmly claims the middleweight laurels.

In a way his tantamount to saying "McGoorty licked the foreigners, but I licked McGoorty."

It certainly is high time that the Cyclone and the man from Oshkosh were matched again.

More than one critic has remarked lately that fight promoters are going out of business in bunches and that the high prices demanded by ring stars is the cause of it.

It has been suggested that the time is ripe for a congress of fight handlers and that a uniform scale of emoluments for glove welders should be one of the fruits of the gathering.

Yes, but how many bidders for Queensberry attractions would adhere to the schedule?

There are many ways of killing a cat and there are just as many ways of fattening a champion's rake-off without deviating from the scale of percentages laid down by the fight promoters protective and benevolent association.

They had something of the kind in San Francisco long years ago and the local match-makers made a pretense of living up to it. If memory serves the various clubs promoting professional bouts bound themselves not to give more than "sixty per cent of the gross" for any attraction. Those were the days of winners' and losers' ends.

Once a star ringman approached a promoter and said, "What can you offer us?"

"I am not allowed to give more than sixty per cent."

"But you can take care of my manager, can't you?"

The promoter appealed to, soon discovered that his rivals were doing business along these lines and the F. P. P. and B. A. dissolved.

Washington, who could clear a foot more.

If Thackeray's figures are correct Washington must have been a wonderful athlete. He could easily have won any intercollegiate championship competition up to 1889 and most of the national championships. Then, too, it must be remembered that the future Father of His Country did not wear spiked shoes like the athletes of today, nor did he have a cinder path for his "run" nor a five inch plank for his "take-off," these improvements not having come into general use as early as the middle of the eighteenth century. Washington today would be a record breaker.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A MAN'S MOTHER.

Just a Little Reminder to the Son Who May Have Forgotten.

But your mother's life has not been easy. Your father was a poor man, and from the day she married him she stood by his side, fighting the wolf from the door with her naked hands, as a woman must fight.

She worked not the eight or ten hour day of the union, but the twenty-four hour day of the poor wife and mother. She cooked and cleaned and scrubbed and patched and nursed from dawn until bedtime and in the night was up and down getting drinks for thirty lips, covering restless little sleepers, listening for croupy coughs.

She had time to listen to your stories of boyish fun and frolic and triumph. She had time to say the things that spurred your ambition on.

She never forgot to cook the little dishes you liked. She did without the dress she needed that you might not be ashamed of your clothes before your fellows.

Remember this now while there is yet time, while she is living, to pay back to her in love and tenderness some of the debt you owe her. You can never pay it all, but pay down something on account this very night. —Ladies' Home Journal.

Swiss Chard.

Chard is the bleached leaves, leaf stalks or midribs of certain plants, as of the globe artichoke and white beet. Also a variety of white beet; Swiss chard beet, leaf beet. In cooking Swiss chard for greens the wide white midribs are cut out and the green leaves served alone, the ribs being cooked separately and served like asparagus, for which they are an appetizing substitute. Then, for a change, a dish of leaves and ribs together is served as greens, but this always seems a waste of good material when either is better alone. The hens greedily eat any that may be left when the table is cleared, or the cows and pigs will dispose of it, so that not a leaf need be wasted. All things considered, Swiss chard is one of the most satisfactory plants a gardener can raise.—Exchange.

They Were Once Slang.

If we had never allowed slang to legitimize itself in orthodox language where should we be today? A reference to old slang dictionaries gives the answer. Take Grose's, published at the end of the eighteenth century—the "dictionary of the vulgar tongue," by the first lexicographer who recognized the word "slang" itself. We find him classing under it such words as bay window, bedisheved, bet, bluster, blotted brogue, capon, grouse, churl, coar, cobbler, cur, domineer, cyreose, dabby, dog, stout, foundling, fuss, gag, malinger, messmate, saunter, slump, sham, rascal, trip and yelp. Wait until the next anti-slang purist uses one of these words and then confront him by reference to Grose.—London Chronicle.

Thankful For His Escape.

"It's useless to urge me to marry you. When I say no I mean no." "Always." "Invariably." "And can nothing ever break your determination when once you make up your mind?" "Absolutely nothing." "Well, I wouldn't care to marry a girl like that, anyhow."—Boston Transcript.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME BY SUPT. DAVISON STARTS GOOD PROGRAM.

With three hundred or more workers present, the thirty-sixth annual convention of the Allen County Sunday School association opened at Trinity church at 9:30 o'clock, Thursday morning. Delegates were present from practically every Bible school in the county. Little disturbed by the impending showers which caught the gathering shortly before the opening hour, representatives from Delphos, Spencerville, Elida, Barnesville, Cridersville, McComb, Allentown, Cairo, and a number of other towns and hamlets, mingled with the 150 or more Lima Sunday School workers and helped to swell the crowd to its usual convention proportions. A number of other delegates were expected on the late afternoon trains, while more than 800 will be in the city on Friday, the big day of the meet.

Delegates are being taken care of on the "Harvard" plan, that is, being given lodging and breakfast at the homes of local workers and taking their other meals at local restaurants.

MURDERED GIRL'S BODY IDENTIFIED BY PHALEN AS THAT OF LIMA GIRL

Telegrams were received in this city Thursday afternoon, from juvenile court officer Thomas Phalen, undertaker F. C. Whitley and from newspaper correspondents at Evansville, Ind., announcing that the body of the young girl who was murdered in that city two weeks ago, had been identified as that of Jessie DeLong, the young girl who has been missing from her home on west Wayne street, this city, since August 18.

The girl's stepfather, Charles DeLong, arrived in this city Wednesday night and when seen stated that he did not believe the body which he saw at Evansville was the body of his missing stepdaughter. Mrs. DeLong, the mother, when shown a photograph of the dead girl which was received by the police of this city, declared that she was of the opinion that the murdered victim was her daughter. The photograph was also seen by juvenile court officer Phalen Wednesday morning and he declared himself of the opinion that the victim was Jessie DeLong, who had been a ward of the juvenile court. On the strength of this belief he went to Evansville, accompanied by Undertaker Whitley and after viewing the remains he was positive of the identity of the murderer's victim and took charge of the body.

Officer Phalen and Undertaker Whitley left Evansville with the body at 1:35 o'clock Thursday afternoon and wired that they would arrive in this city at 2 o'clock Friday morning.

San Francisco, Oct. 9.—It is a pity for Eddie McGorty's sake that his bouts with Australian Dave Smith and English Jack Harrison, were not in accordance with the middleweight conditions in the matter of poundage. If they had been the question of championship in the 155-pound class which has been in a badly vexed condition since Stanley Ketchel died, would be might close to a settlement.

McGorty would have been in a position today to say "my right there is none to dispute," for with the scalps of the Australian and English champions dangling at his girdle it would be easy enough for him to bring confusion to any one inclined to argue that he was claiming too much.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A FEW APPLICATIONS OF A SIMPLE REMEDY WILL BRING BACK THE NATURAL COLOR.
"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place," is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray. When gray hairs come, or when the hairs seem to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea," which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants. The whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color. Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. H. F. Vorkamp, agent.

Steel mills in the Pittsburgh district report practically filed with orders up to April. Every indication points to a steady and higher market.

(By United Press)
Wooster, O., Oct. 10.—"Let us have our babies," cried James M. Cox, democratic nominee for governor to 500 Wooster democrats. "Every tenth second a baby dies in this country. In Ohio the death rate is appalling." In his speech here last night Cox advocated mother's pensions, a compulsory compensation law and penal reform.

DROPPED DEAD AS OLD MAN LOSES.

York, Pa., Oct. 10.—"The old mare is not as good as she used to be." Those were the last words spoken by Lewis Campbell, a widely known horseman of Arlington, Md., who had entered his horse Nettie May in the 2.17 trotting race at the grounds of the York Agricultural Society today. The mare had finished fifth in the field of seven horses. The old horseman was disappointed. It so effected him that when he stepped from his sulky, after the race was over, he dropped dead.

TURKS ROUTED AFTER A BLOODY SKIRMISH

(By United Press)
Budapest, Oct. 10.—Following their initial reverse by the Montenegrins at Planinitza mountain, the Turks have been putting up a desperate resistance to their enemies advance into Turkish territory, according to messages from the front today.

Its defenders apparently were unprepared for the attack on their Planinitza position and replied ineffectively to the Montenegrin artillery fire. Cannon after cannon was put out of commission and the Turks fell back upon Heitchitch Mountain. Here their fortifications were much stronger and throughout the afternoon the Montenegrins were held back by a hailstorm of rifle and artillery shots. During the afternoon and last night Turkish troops from the Southward were constantly landing on the shore of Lake Scutari near the Montenegrin frontier, and at dawn today a heavy fire was resumed on the Montenegrin lines. The latter replied briskly and at last accounts the engagement was still in progress along an extended front. All reports indicate heavy losses on both sides.

ATTY. WHITMAN SUMMING UP BECKER CASE

TELLS JURY HE WILL SHOW BECKER MADE GUNMEN DO MURDER.

(By United Press)
New York, Oct. 11.—With the jury completed at the morning session district attorney Whitman immediately began his opening address summing up, in some 5,000 words, exactly what he planned to prove against the accused police-man. He reviewed the alleged graft activities and insisted that Rosen-thal's threat to tell all he knew about police grafting was the sign-aling of the gambler's death warrant. Whitman stated that he would prove by Schepps, Webber and Val-ton that Becker compelled them under threats of "framing" something on them to hire the four gunmen to kill the gambler in order to silence him. Whitman planned to call as his first witness, Mrs. Herman Rosenthal, widow of the slain gambler and then to swear the four who have turned state's evidence. The jurors were secured yesterday but they were to take the places of numbers 8 and 11, excused by consent. They were Chas. Rauchhaus, real estate dealer, and Alfred Fellheim-mer, an architect. The twelfth juror, accepted (this morning is Samuel H. Haas, a contractor. He is married. He was one of the special panel of 100 talesman which reported today.

FAMOUS SIAMESE TWINS ARE DYING.

The woman died at the home of the pair near Wilmington. The death of Christine is expected to follow in a few days. The twins had the same body, but had two heads and two sets of lower extremities. They had been seen all over the country and in Europe and could speak different languages. They were well educated. They could talk to themselves or could carry on conversations with others at the same time. While one was asleep the other could be awake, but as a rule they went to sleep at the same time.

STATE MEETING

THREE PLAYERS IN THE GIANTS LINEUP.

SIX TICKETS

WILL BE ON THE BALLOT AT THIS YEAR'S ELECTION.

The ballot for this year's election, which will be held on November 6, exactly one month hence, will contain six tickets. These will be the tickets of the Democrat, Republican, Progressive, Prohibition, Socialist and Socialist-Labor parties. The first two parties got on the ballot by reason of having polled more than ten per cent. of the votes cast at the last general election. The other four got on by petition. All six parties have filed their tickets with the Secretary of State. The Socialist-Labor party was the last to qualify, its ticket being filed Saturday, the last day for weighing in. Between 9,000 and 10,000 signatures are needed to get on the ballot by petition this year. The Progressive party filed double the number needed.

England's Last Tollgate.
The distinction of being the last tollgate in England is now claimed by a gate in the Cambridgeshire Fens, one and a half miles from Chatteris, on the main road to Somersham. The gate stands in the middle of a section of about two hundred yards, once privately owned, and was erected over two hundred years ago. It was eventually purchased by a London company for $10,000.

ELDERLY FOLKS MUST AVOID CALOMEL AND CATHARTICS

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" is harmless to cleanse your stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels of decaying food, sour bile, gases and clogged-up waste.

You old people, Syrup of Figs is particularly for you. You who don't exercise as much as you need to; who like the easy chair. You, whose steps are slow and whose muscles are less elastic. You must realize that your liver and ten yards of bowels have also become less active. Don't regard Syrup of Figs as physic. It stimulates the liver and bowels just as exercise would do if you took enough of it. It is not harsh like salts or cathartics. The help which Syrup of Figs gives to a torpid liver and weak, sluggish bowels is harmless, natural and gentle. When eyes grow dim, you help them. Do the same with your liver and bowels when age makes them less active. There is nothing more important. Costive, clogged-up bowels mean that decaying, fermenting food is clogged there and the

HIS BODY WOULDN'T GO INSIDE HEARSE

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—William Weissner, Philadelphia's biggest man physically, was buried today from his saloon. There was not a door in his home large enough through which to carry the casket. Weissner, who was 52, weighed 480 pounds. He knew his end was near, and to make things easy for his family, insisted upon remaining in a little room back of his saloon. With almost his last breath he declared that if he went upstairs and died they would have to get a derrick to get the body down.

There was not a hearse big enough in Philadelphia to accommodate the body. A truck was used to convey it to the cemetery.

There is no safer investment possible than first mortgage on improved real estate. True, inexperienced persons do not know how to judge values of property and might make mistakes by loaning on bad titles. By investing through the medium of The Lima Home and Savings Association, in addition to the commonly recognized advantages of real estate mortgages, you get the expert service of men who have successfully managed one of the largest financial institutions in the vicinity for the past 25 years, loaning all its funds on first mortgages. Not a dollar is loaned without personal appraisal and expert examination of the title. The property in every case must be worth one-third more than the amount loaned and protected by fire insurance in a company of approved strength. All loans are made in this vicinity, where the property and market conditions can be carefully watched by our officers.

THIS YEAR'S ELECTION.

The ballot for this year's election, which will be held on November 6, exactly one month hence, will contain six tickets. These will be the tickets of the Democrat, Republican, Progressive, Prohibition, Socialist and Socialist-Labor parties. The first two parties got on the ballot by reason of having polled more than ten per cent. of the votes cast at the last general election. The other four got on by petition. All six parties have filed their tickets with the Secretary of State. The Socialist-Labor party was the last to qualify, its ticket being filed Saturday, the last day for weighing in. Between 9,000 and 10,000 signatures are needed to get on the ballot by petition this year. The Progressive party filed double the number needed.
